Welcome to the Big Convo

Where small talk doesn't happen.

This group is to discuss a wide range of topics. From politics, sociology, culture, religion, philosophy and even what Beyonce ate for breakfast.

If you've been invited it's because someone thought you had something of value to share or hear. So we look forward to your input.

Guidelines

You can speak from your heart or your head. Be respectful, be honest and be free.

We will work to enhance the public understanding and appreciation of secularism as the best strategy for achieving freedom, equality, and peace in a plural society.

We will identify and publicise key instances where people are unfairly privileged or discriminated against because of their religion or belief or where principles of human rights or equality are compromised.

We will engage in effective advocacy to influence public opinion, government policy, legislation, and case law in order to resolve these situations.

Felix Ngole

Felix Ngole, a Christian student, was removed from his university social work course after he made comments on his personal Facebook page in support of biblical teaching on marriage and sexual ethics. Felix was told that, by posting his comments on Facebook, he "may have caused offence to some individuals" and had "transgressed boundaries which are not deemed appropriate for someone entering the Social Work profession."
