Session outline

What is the session about? Identity

Why is it important? To know your true self

What are the learning outcomes? An understanding of who you are

What level of response (spectating, participation, collaboration, strategic) is required? Spectating.

Bunny In a Bunny Suit

Pretending to be myself again
Acting as if I was who I am
Wearing the clothes that I always wear Doing the usual thing to my hair

Pretending to myself again
In the tale I'm the person I've always been Legally changing my name to my name
Making believe I'm exactly the same

Bunny in a bunny suit
Tiger in a tiger mask
Who in the world do you think that I am
I suppose it depends on who you ask

Of all the disguises I've ever worn
I flatter myself in the most sincere form
Still I'm kept at a distance by friends
For just pretending to be myself again

A bunny in a bunny suit
Vampire with plastic teeth
Who in the world do I think that I am I suppose it depends on who I believe

Who in the world do you think that I am?

Who am I?

Who or what gives me identity?

Man

Where does Man's identity come from?

In the beginning

Sheep = sheep kind

Seperation

Knowledge of good and evil

Gen 3

Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from any tree in the garden'?"

2 The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden, 3 but God did say, 'You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die.'"

4 "You will not certainly die," the serpent said to the woman. 5 "For God knows that when you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."

6 When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. 7 Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

Serpent contradicts the Father.
But he's selling the idea of being like the Father.

The serpent was selling them what was already there birthright.

Man "achieved" independence from the Father. Man covers himself.

Man was previously without clothes, but now man was naked

Life

A distant relationship with Daddy

Man tries to reconnect with Father

- 1.
Tries to please his father

If I do this maybe Dad will like me.
- 2.
Angry because he feels rejected

Man lashes out as an expression of inner turmoil.
- 3.
Self affirming Independence

I'll do my own thing then. I'll prove I'm worthy.

Cain tries to reconnect with Father

Sacrifice

He offers a sacrifice of vegetation. His best.

Murder

Jealous of his brothers connection with Father. He loses control and kills him.

Build city

The city is a manifestation of man's identity crises. He creates his own world.

Man is dealing with that feeling of rejection...

Continues to fight for legitimacy Illegitimately

Babel was an expression of resentment towards the Father and an attempt to usurp

God

Man

Idolatry

If Father can reject me
I can also reject Him.
I'll make up my Dad to affirm who I am.

Idolatry

Guess who's happy to play the role of step Dad

Idolatry

In many cases man made himself the idol. And sought to exercise godlike powers over others leading to oppression, war and violence.

How far will the

to keep you lost?

Preying on vulnerabilities

The new (original) man

The new man came from the Father.

The old man did not recognise Him.

When He spoke, it sounded as though it was the Father speaking

And He carried Himself as if He owned everything.

The owner of the vineyard

Matthew 21:33-46

33 “Now listen to another story. A certain landowner planted a vineyard, built a wall around it, dug a pit for pressing out the grape juice, and built a lookout tower. Then he leased the vineyard to tenant farmers and moved to another country. 34 At the time of the grape harvest, he sent his servants to collect his share of the crop. 35 But the farmers grabbed his servants, beat one, killed one, and stoned another. 36 So the landowner sent a larger group of his servants to collect for him, but the results were the same.

37 “Finally, the owner sent his son, thinking, ‘Surely they will respect my son.’

38 “But when the tenant farmers saw his son coming, they said to one another, ‘Here comes the heir to this estate. Come on, let’s kill him and get the estate for ourselves!’ 39 So they grabbed him, dragged him out of the vineyard, and murdered him.

40 “When the owner of the vineyard returns,” Jesus asked, “what do you think he will do to those farmers?”

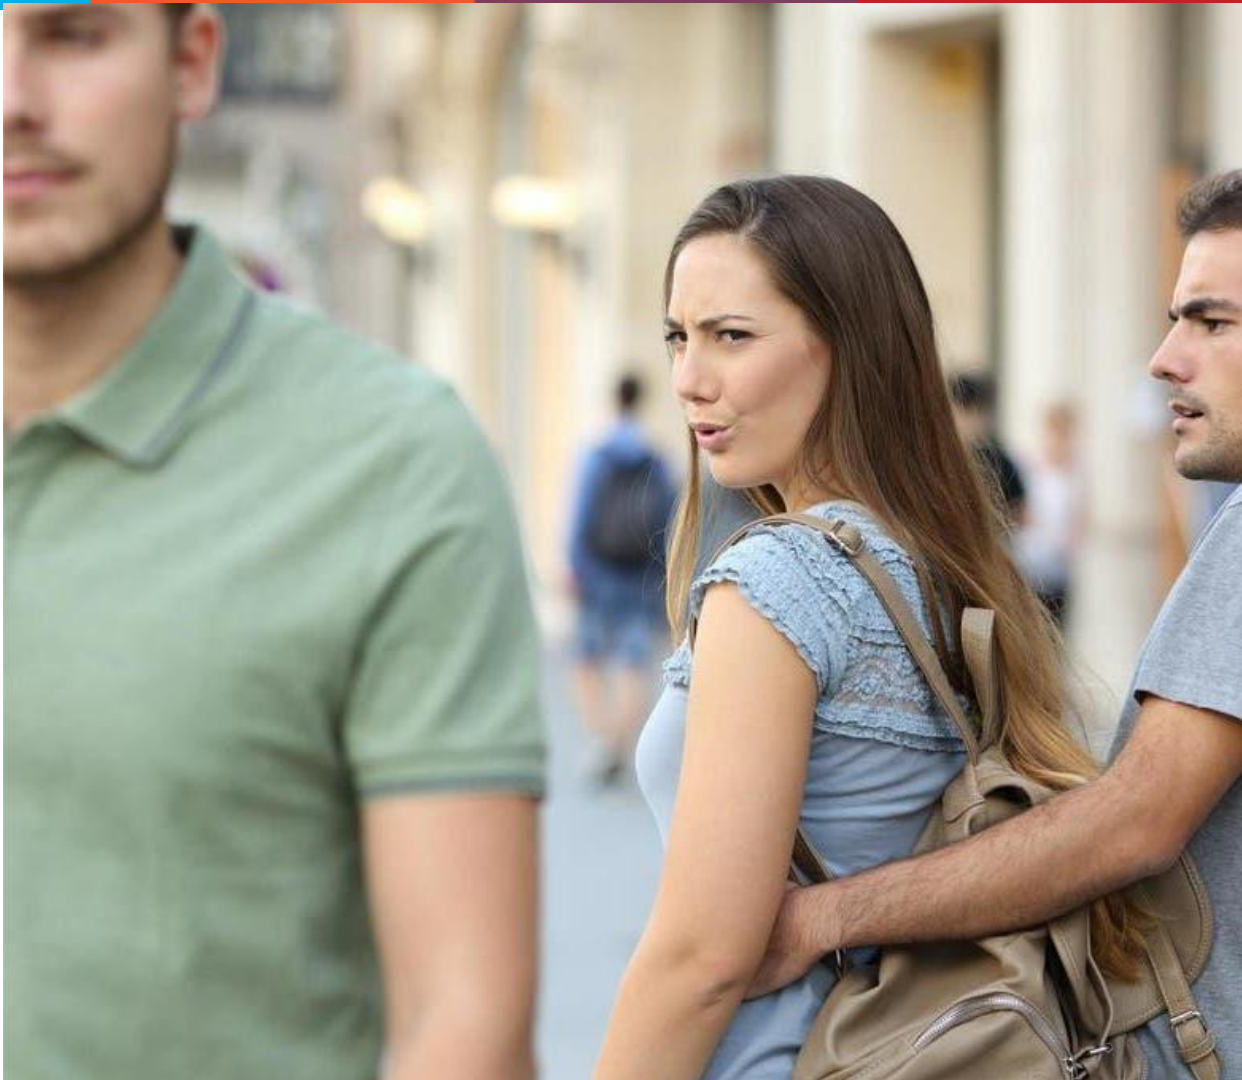

41 The religious leaders replied, “He will put the wicked men to a horrible death and lease the vineyard to others who will give him his share of the crop after each harvest.”

His Culture, was different from theirs. Like he was some King or something

A real man

Man was Jealous
...again

Father

Are you not all sons of God?

"I and the Father are one." 31 The Jews took up stones again to stone Him. 32 Jesus answered them, "I showed you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you stoning Me?" 33 The Jews answered Him, "For a good work we do not stone You, but for blasphemy; and because You, being a man, make Yourself out to be God,"...

John 10:30-33

Are you not all sons of God?

...34 Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your Law, 'I have said you are "gods"'? 35 If he called them 'gods,' to whom the word of God came—and Scripture cannot be set aside— 36 what about the one whom the Father set apart as his very own and sent into the world? Why then do you accuse me of blasphemy because I said, 'I am God's Son'? 37 Do not believe me unless I do the works of my Father. 38 But if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me, and I in the Father." 39 Again they tried to seize him, but he escaped their grasp.

John 10:34-39

Jealousy turned into anger

So they killed Him

And the people stood by, looking on. And even the rulers were sneering at Him, saying, "He saved others; let Him save Himself if this is the Christ of God, His Chosen One."

Luke 23:35

KEEP CALM
GOD IS IN CONTROL

This was all part of the Father's plan to reconcile his wayward children back to Him

Man had to die, to be reborn anew with a new identity.

The true light that gives light to everyone was coming into the world. He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him. He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him...

...Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God- children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.

John 1:9- 14

Ministry of reconciliation.
Returning to the Father

All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation

2 Corinthians 5:18

...10 For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life.

Rom 5:10

Emotional Moment When Man Sees His Father For The First Time In 37 Years!

Welcome to the family

New clothes

New mind

New spirit

Old body...
New one later

New man in the old world.

You are light in a dark generation.

And they will also try to put out your light

Question

Why are new men identifying as though they were old?

Where does my identity come from?

The serpent is always at work

A new identity has been given, like the Israelites were given the promise land

There must be a wrestle to take all that is yours.

That is maturity.

Putting to death the old and carnal ways

And living purley from the new identity.

But if anyone obeys his word, love for God is truly made complete in them. This is how we know we are in him: Whoever claims to live in him must live as Jesus did.
